GIFT DISCLOSURES

This receipt is intended to comply with the IRS requirements regarding written donee acknowledgment of gifts, and disclosure of any benefits provided to donors in exchange for gifts. All gifts to the Regents are tax-deductible, except to the extent that benefits were provided to you in consideration for your gift. No benefits were provided to you in consideration for your gift, unless noted on the face of the receipt. If noted, the amount stated as the fair market value of any benefits provided has been estimated as closely as possible.

The Regents of the University of California (Regents) is the formal corporate name of the university, as set forth in the California State Constitution. It is a public trust, governed by the Board of Regents, organized for the purpose of teaching, research, and public service. There are ten separate campuses, including UC San Diego, each of which may accept gifts on behalf of the Regents for purposes that benefit that campus.
