

UC San Diego Health

UC San Diego Health billing statements have been simplified and now include provider and hospital fees on one combined statement. See information below about the new format of our billing cover page.

A – Account number

Please have this number ready if you need to contact us for more information about your bill.

B – Amount due

This is the amount you owe upon receipt of the bill, after insurance payments and other adjustments have been made.

C – Insurance information

The insurer that we have on file for your account will appear here.

D – MyUCSDChart activation code

If you don't yet have a MyUCSDChart account, the activation code that will appear here will allow you to create one. A MyUCSDChart account will give you the ability to view and pay your bill electronically, as well as send messages to your provider, request appointments, and access some medical records and lab results. Register at myucsdchat.ucsd.edu.

E – Contact us

Please use this information to contact us with any questions. Along with the new, unified billing statement, you can now use one phone number for questions about provider or hospital fees.

F – Payment coupon

If you're paying by mail, please include the payment coupon with your payment. On the back side, you can submit changes to your address.
